

Hello Friends!

OH. MY. GOLDEN. I don't think the pups and their people could have had any more FUN at BarktoberFest last week! The sun was shining on the beautiful Tennessee River, the parade was spectacular, the food trucks were hopping, the craft drinks by local brewing company XUL were flowing, the cotton candy and popcorn were yummy, the bark-or-treating yielded bags of goodies for dogs and kids, and the costume competition was fun and fierce!

If you missed it, we're very sorry as you missed a LOT, but plans are in the making for another event next Spring! We had about 50 pups turn out and we were so sad to see it end. So, stay tuned as we work on plans for our next FABULOUS OUTDOOR DOG PARTY!!!

And thank you SO VERY MUCH again to our sponsors and supporters without which we could not have hosted this wonderful day to celebrate all the dogs saved and everything GOLDEN!
